ST. ALBAN'S I. A. ASSOCIATION.

On Sunday morning last the Ven. Archdeacon George McKay, Incumbent of St. Alban's Church, invited the ladies of his congregation to meet him on Wednesday afternoon in the Church for the purpose of organizing a Ladies Aid Association in connection with church work.

In response to this invitation there was a large attendance. The meeting opened with prayer by the Incumbent, who afterwards addressed the ladies, reminding them of the sacred work expressed by our energetic Bishop on his last visit here that such an association, as was now contemplated, should be formed.

He thought that the time had now come when a movement of this sort might be carried out with advantage, and judging from the experience of other parishes, it was found that until the ladies were induced to take a leading and active part in helping to advance the church interests there was no real success.

He hoped and felt confident that, from the spirit evinced by the present meeting, they would all work unanimously and zealously together, remembering they were all striving for one aim and object, viz: the advancement of the Master's Kingdom.

He stated that there were many worthy objects for which money was urgently required, such as the erection of a suitable fence around St. Mary's Cemetery, where so many of our loved and honored dead. It was the wish of the Bishop that the cemetery be enlarged and surveyed into plots.

He further stated that he had already the sum of $74 subscribed towards this object. He regretted the unavoidable absence of the Hon. L. Clarke, who had been expected to address the meeting, and who, no doubt, would have spoken many kindly words of encouragement to the ladies.

The Ven. Archdeacon then informed the meeting that, after the appointment of a secretary, he would place before them a constitution for their consideration, which he trusted would meet with their approval.

Mrs. Way most kindly consented to act as secretary and he then proceeded to lay before them the constitution, which was duly adopted.

The following officers were then appointed: President, Mrs. McLean.

Vice-Presidents, Mrs. Blair and Mrs. J. A. McKay.

Sec. Treas., Miss McLean.

A Managing Committee, whose duties it will be to solicit aid and endeavor in every way to promote the efficiency of the association.

The ladies intend shortly to give an entertainment to augment the funds of the Aid, and it was resolved that His Worship the Mayor be asked for the use of the council chamber for that purpose.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Way for her kind services as secretary, and the meeting then adjourned with the benediction.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's Church gave a social in the Manse on Wednesday evening last in aid of the funds of the society. In some respects the social was a success but in others it was a failure; the next time the ladies give an entertainment they should either have a more commodious hall or limit the number of tickets. It is on occasion such as this that the want of a good public hall is felt. Financially the social was a great success; the refreshments provided by the ladies, were all that could be desired and the musical part of the programme was very good. The Fulton family played several selections on the violin. Mrs. Spratt sang, in her usual beautiful style, "When other Lips and other Hearts." Mr. Johnson favored the audience with "I fear no Fox" and Mr. MacIsaac followed with "O fond Love." Mr. Sanderson, son of Canon River, sang two songs in capital style and brought down the house. Other songs were given during the evening by Mr. Bartlett and others, all of which were well rendered. The social was a success in all respects, except that the room was so crowded that it was impossible to move around and have a chat with a friend, and a social where you cannot do that is like Hamlet, with Hamlet left out. Of course the ladies are not to blame, they did their part in getting it out, and they did it well, and are deserving of great credit for the success of the entertainment.

CHIT-CHAT LOCALS.

Gathered by our Reporter.

A fresh lot of pure drugs and chemicals has just arrived at Jackson's.

Mr. H. Walters arrived back from Troy on Saturday evening last.

Mr. J. F. Kennedy, an old resident of this town, returned on Monday.

Inspector Morris, N.W.M.P. and Mr. B. A. Lawson, of Battleford, are in town.

The sale of the Town ferry right will take place by public auction on Tuesday, the 19th inst.

Mr. H. Mitchell, of Duck Lake, is in town. He is recovering slowly from his late severe illness.

Miss Auld has opened out her millinery and dressmaking establishment. See her advertisement.

The work of grading the Government road and cutting down the hill is progressing very favorably.

Mr. R. Gwynne got back from Winnipeg on Monday last. He saw his wife safely on the train there on her way to visit her friends.

A Court of Revision will be held in the Town Hall on Monday next, the 4th inst., when all who are dissatisfied with their assessment will be allowed the privilege to appear.

The Saskatchewan Directory is for sale at the book store here. The price has been raised to $1.50 and parties wishing copies should secure them at once as the supply is limited.

We would like to know why our council are so opposed to fitting up a suitable place for a prison. May be it is on the score of economy, for it cannot be that some of them are afraid of being nabbed themselves. Is the constable to be a mere figurehead?

The president of the Saskatchewan Rifle Association has just received a handsome cup from D. H. Macdonald, Esq., M.P., to be competed for this summer. This cup is a magnificent piece of workmanship and is a very generous gift, and shows that although our member is far away he does not forget us.

Mr. Vin. Hutchinson, an old time here, and who has been away for some time, came in on the stage this week. He has just returned from the Pacific coast, where he met several of Prince Albert's former residents; some of whom are doing well, while others expressed a wish to be back again, and they will get here too. Everybody returns again.

A Ladies Aid Society was organized two months ago by the ladies connected with the Presbyterian congregation here. The officers connected with the society are, president, two vice-presidents, sec. treasurer and an executive committee.

The society has at present forty five members. The ladies are busily engaged making preparations for a bazaar, which will be held at the time of the Lorne Agricultural Fair.

For the last few days a very destructive fire has been raging in the woods across the river. This is the worst fire that has been in the woods for some years and we think the fire guardians are neglecting their duty when they allow such wanton destruction without making an effort to check it or find out who was the cause and bring them before the authorities to answer for their carelessness, for we cannot believe it could be anything else, although we have heard it said that it may have been done to make dry wood for next winter.

AMONG THE 1000 ISLANDS.

Guanacota, Ont., is beautifully situated in the very midst of the Thousand Islands, but its citizens are equally liable as those of other sections to catarrh.

W. B. Fullerton, Druggist, says—A prominent citizen of our town expresses great delight over the miraculous healing properties of Nasci Balm. He has suffered for a long time with a severe headache over the eye, and his head was so stopped up that he was in great distress.

His application gave a instant relief, and in two days he was entirely cured.

THE DELEGATES' REPORT.

A special meeting of the House of Delegates was held last night for the purpose of receiving the report of the delegates to the Ottawa Convention.

The report of the delegates was read by Mr. John Stewart, and was well received. The delegates were well represented by many different parties, each working their own way in bringing the Government to assist them in the various matters connected with the Ottawa Convention. The delegates were well represented by many different parties, each working their own way in bringing the Government to assist them in the various matters connected with the Ottawa Convention. The delegates were well represented by many different parties, each working their own way in bringing the Government to assist them in the various matters connected with the Ottawa Convention.

After the council meeting adjourned a public meeting was held and presided over by Mr. John Stewart. Capt. Craig addressed the meeting and went partly over the same ground as Mayor Bain. He had been introduced to a number of hundred and thirty members of parliament, nearly all the members, and numerous other men of influence, and had no doubt but that their mission, if not as successful as he would wish, would result beneficially to Prince Albert. He spoke of the ignorance of the people of the east regarding this country generally, they being under the impression that the Mackenzie and Saskatchewan rivers were quite close together.

He was followed by Mr. MacArthur who paid a very high tribute to the ability and perseverance of our member, who he said, was working like a Trojan in the interests of Saskatchewan and was one of the most influential members at Ottawa.

Dr. Bain gave an account of the experience of the delegate in Ottawa, and spoke very highly of Mr. MacArthur, who was indefatigable in his endeavors to attain the object of the delegation.

A vote of thanks was tendered the delegates, on motion of Mr. Bates seconded by Mr. T. E. Baker, after which Mr. McKay moved a vote of confidence in our member, Mr. MacArthur, which was seconded by Mr. W. J. Carter and carried unanimously.

Spices of the purest quality for medicinal and cooking purposes at T. E. Jackson's.

On Monday evening last the Fether family gave their third concert in St. Paul's Church and had a very fair attendance. The programme, which was very long, consisted of instrumental and vocal music and readings. A number of selections of the piano and those voices were well rendered. Mrs. Fether read, in fine style, "European Garden," by Mark Twain, and an Irish piece, "Tom Patten." The singing of "Nanny Tilt," by Miss Beattie, was good, and probably the best piece of the evening was a violin solo, "Blue Bird of Scotland," by the same little lady. For one so young her execution on the violin is remarkable. Special mention is made to Master Campbell, whose rendering of the "Maid of the Zephyr" was very good, and one of the best pieces of the evening. Both pieces were well received by the audience. The concert was held at the piano of Mr. Fether.
